

Announcement of Hydro and Agro Informatics Institute (Public Organization)

No. 5 / 2018

Subject: Hydro and Agro Information Institute's intention for creating the consciousness, value development and honesty

---

Employees of Hydro and Agro Informatics Institute (HAI) would like to jointly announce intentions to establish a transparency standard, create an organization free of corruption, adhere to the culture and morality of the organization to perform duties for the benefit of society as a whole, be virtuous in performing duties with good governance and work transparency that can be verified. To achieve the determinations above, HAI will carry out these notions as follows:

1. Raise consciousness, cultivate values and attitudes for personnel of HAI by adhering of Sufficiency Economy Philosophy and apply it to their duties and daily lives.
2. Manage and perform duties with good governance and rule of law by aiming to meet needs of the people with righteousness, fairness and transparency can be verified every step of the operation.
3. Promote government, private organization and public sector to participate in activities and freely receive information on activities and be able to get involved in acknowledging the organization's news and information.
4. Prevent and monitor corruptions in all forms under strict supervision and by using tough measures and strict punishments for corruptors and relevant offenders.
5. Follow the rules and regulations of the Board of Director of Hydro and Agro Informatics Institute on code of ethics of Director and employees, 2010.
6. Conduct oneself following guideline, measure, anti-bribery protocol and conflict of interest according to the manual on conflict of interest of Office of the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Science and Technology.

It is hereby publicly announced.

This announcement is hereby issued on July 31, 2018.

Sutat Weesakul

(Mr. Sutat Weesakul)

Director

Hydro and Agro Informatics Institute